

VIDEO OFF-ROADING FOR AMATEURS
 ▶ In Cumbria, we test a self-drive 4X4 safari

THE SUNDAY TIMES

Taking off: what's new in the world

In our weekly column, we round up the best of what's fresh out of the box in the world of travel

The Sunday Times Published: 10 November 2013

It's going to be a squeeze: Jucy rentals in Las Vegas (HO)

(Braveheart), Amelie's apartment in Paris and the Wudang Monastery in China (Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon). The ticket? £198,000. veryfirstto.com

Sin City campers

Jucy Rentals just launched a fleet of mini-RVs to allow visitors to get more out of Las Vegas than weight gain and gambling problems. The vans sleep four in two double beds and come with a gas stove, fridge and a TV. From £30 a night; jucyrentals.com

Luxury before wicket

The posh ship SeaDream embarks on a cricket cruise next March, taking in England's three T20 matches against the West Indies at Barbados's Kensington Oval. The voyage also visits Antigua, St Barths, Tobago and Martinique. From £10,385pp; itcsports.co.uk

Farewell to lost luggage

A new, tiny GPS receiver won't stop airlines losing your bag, but will allow you to pinpoint its location from anywhere on earth. The LoccaMini is 1.7in long, weighs less than an ounce and reports its whereabouts to your smartphone using technologies including wi-fi and AGPS.

Set-jetting epic

Unmissable has launched a 90-day, round-the-world trip visiting the locations of 20 blockbuster films. Stops include Tiffany's in New York, Glencoe

0 comments

mknobil ▾

1 person listening

+ Follow Post comment

Newest | Oldest | Most Recommended

Livefyre